DEDICATION

High school is a trying, hectic, and fun time for everyone — a time when each of us needs the firm hand and guidance of someone who cares.

We, the Class of '81, have been fortunate enough to have such a person as our friend and advisor throughout these four years of high school: in the fun times like building floats; in the more serious times like arranging the prom; and, most important of all, in the classroom. She has laughed with us, taught us, and helped us through these years with incredible patience and concern.

For these and many more reasons, we affectionately dedicate this book to you,

MRS. SHARON LOREI

LIFE

... AS IT

EXISTS

UNDER

SENECA'S

BIG TOP!

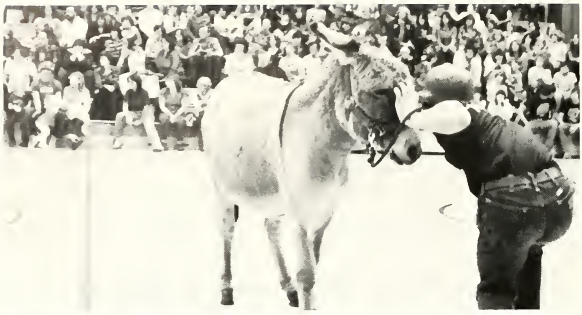

Life under the Big Top at Seneca, at the Tech School and at Vo-Ag is never dull. Activities such as the Winter Carnival, the Donkey Basketball Game, and sporting events kept our spirits flying high throughout the year.

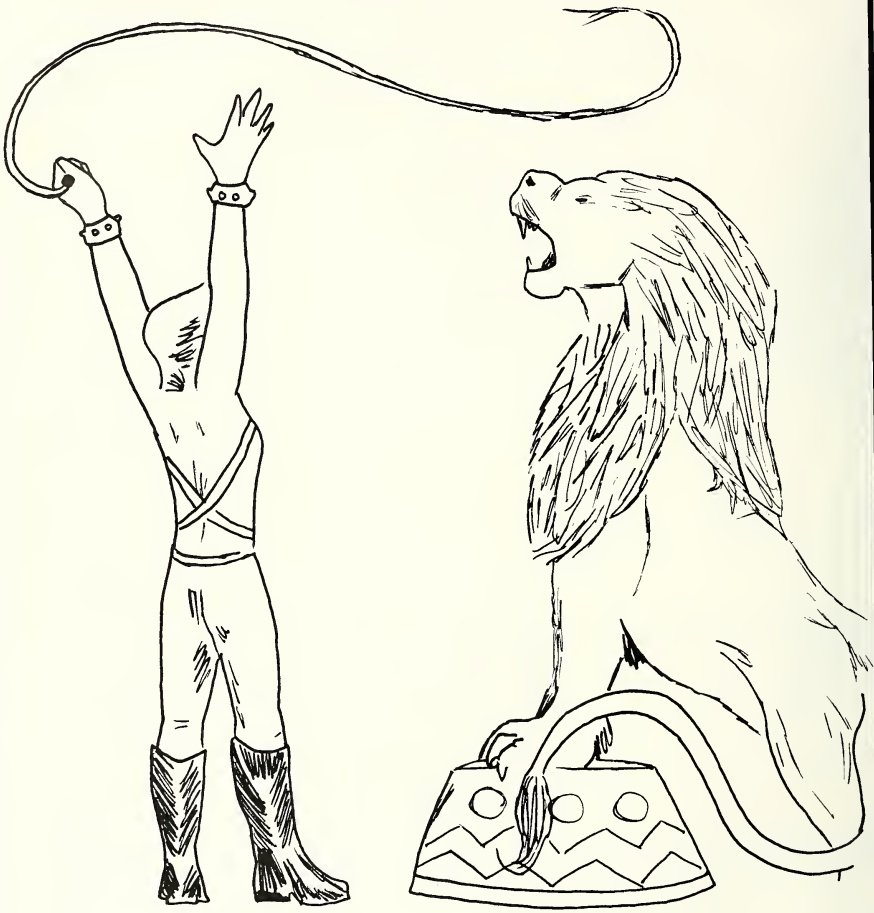

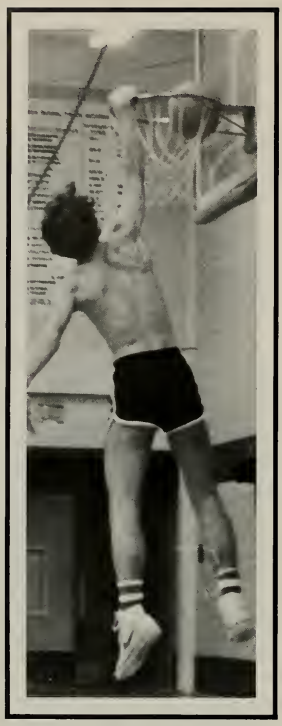

As the Seniors move on, they will carry with them fond memories of four trying exciting, and busy years of high school life.

The Class of 1981 is a very talented class in many areas. In the area of academics, these ten people have attained the highest grade point averages of their class. Not pictured is Veronica Klett (who graduated early and was not available to get her picture taken) bringing the total to eleven.

Sweden Revisited

Last year I had the opportunity of spending a year in another country — Sweden. I stayed with my pen pal Cecillia and her family. They live in a small fishing town called Simrishhamn on the Baltic Sea. I really enjoyed my trip. I met many new friends and had many good experiences as well as bad.

BENGT BRINGS "A LITTLE BIT OF SWEDEN"

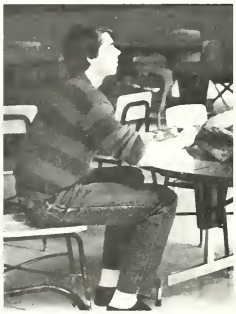

Hi, Bobcats!

I will in a few sentences try to express how grateful I am. I have had a great year here in the USA. The Trapp family, whom I stayed with, have been super nice and understanding ever since they picked me up at the airport. They have put up with my weird habits for a whole year which I don't think too many families would be able to. I'd also like to thank all of you at Seneca for all the fun I have had with you. I'm looking forward to the day when I can come back and see you again.

Take it easy and I'll see you soon!

Bengt Norden

Hi, There!

It sure has been nice to spend this year here at Seneca, and I've tried to live it up. I know I won't ever forget all the fun I've had here and all the new things I've learned. When I first came to Seneca, I was really scared. I didn't know what it would be like to be here, but I found a whole bunch of wonderful people who have been so nice and understanding to me.

I'll be back — and hopefully I'll see you all again!

Keep it going, Bobcats!

Love,
Leena

Hi, Bobcats!

I just want to say thanks for the great memories you have given me. This year has really been an experience for me, and I'm glad it was Seneca I came to 'cause everybody has been nice to me. I will miss you all a lot, even the teachers! (No, I'm not crazy!)

I hope to see you again.

Love,

Anne Denmark

ULF'S YEAR IN THE U.S. — SPENT AT SENECA

Hej san,

I had a very nice, enjoyable, and educational year here at Seneca. I would like to thank you students, faculty, and last, but not the least, my wonderful family I stayed with.

I have a lot of wonderful memories to take back to Sweden: my trip to Toronto, the pep assemblies, the games, cross country, etc.

I think I was lucky to come to Seneca, because I think it's a great school.

Sincerely,
Ulf

Memories

Memories are fond
So was he,
There was always a bond
Between you and me.
Why did this happen?
I don't understand.
I wish so very hard
That I could hold your hand.
Now, you are gone
And all the good times done,
I will always remember you
In my dreams
And also the memory of the
Bond between you and me.
I love you; I just wish
I had told you before.

Your Sis,

Chris

This year's wrestling squads' main goal was rebuilding. Our two new coaches were Mr. Yori and Mr. Pettis, who recruited many up and coming matmen. Led by Captain Mike Nosko, their record for this season was 6 wins and 11 losses. Many of the matches were very close, and we should commend them for their valiant effort.

The 1981 Grail is 200 pages long. This is the largest yearbook ever put out here at Seneca. Thanks to the cooperation of the editorial staff, the business staff, Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas, the advisors Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Hurlburt, and Larry's Studio, this book has been a successful venture. A special thanks goes to Teresa Carlson, the 1980 Grail Editor, who just "couldn't keep her hands out of the pot!" She helped to complete layouts, crop pictures, and add her own brand of humor to some very hectic work sessions.

Twenty-two energetic girls and an enthusiastic advisor make up the ever-popular group commonly known as the Seneca Cadettes. Like other members of the band front, the Cadettes are seen brightening up and performing at football games, basketball games, wrestling matches, pep assemblies, and summer parades. Under the leadership of their advisor, Mr. Travis, and their co-captains Terri Quigley and Brenda McConnell, the Cadettes have put in many, many hours of practice. This great effort paid off this year when the Cadettes walked away with first places from all three of the competitions they entered. All of the members of the Cadettes should be congratulated on their fine job.

Front: Jill Rowen, Carla Loop. Seated: Jeanna Orton, Lisa Vogt, Maryann Duryea, Chris Grabowski, Sharry Wegnar, Tera Lew Peulatte Shinko. Kneeling: Sherry Karecman, Michalle Risteu, Cindy Roan, Paula Steele, Charyl Lucas. Back: Brande McConnell, Cor een Yost, Holly Gulnac, Chris Farina, Petty Marquardt, Tarri Quigley.

The Color Guard is a well-named group since they bring action, life, and color everywhere they perform. Their performance is aided by such things as high spirits, flags, banners, smiles, silks, rifles and their advisor, Miss Rapp. They perform at basketball and football games, wrestling matches, pep assemblies, and parades. The Color Guard is divided into three groups. The first two groups, rifles and A-line, are led by Kim McDonald. The rifles perform with rifles, and the A-line performs with clothes lines — no, not really. The A-line carries the school's banners, swords, and the American Flag. The last group, the Silks, perform with large blue and white silk flags and are under the direction of Diane McGee. The Color Guard does a great job in all they attempt, and Seneca is grateful to them for coloring our world.

Kneeling: Lori Vogt, Brenda Beck, Diane McGee, Kim McDonald, Jan Forbes, Lisa Yaple. Standir Sue King, Kathy Mitchell, Lisa Daugherty, Colleen Miller, Sue Barto, Mary Kosiorek, Sue Hinkler.

Kneeling: Brenda Stankiewicz, Mary Trapp, Leslie Carlson, Cathy Miller, Judy Kibbe. Standing: Tracy Stephenson, Darlene Haibach, Krystal Turner, Lesha Yost, Barb Huzar, Jackie Dinges.

Always there with a quick smile, laugh, song, or routine are the Seneca Majorettes. Characterized by high-held heads and batons, the Majorettes set a good example to others to also hold their heads high for Seneca. They can be seen performing at wrestling matches, football and basketball games, parades, and pep assemblies. Under the direction of advisor Mrs. Newsham, Captain Krystal Turner, and Assistant Captain Leslie Carlson, the Majorettes did very well this year. They received two 2nd place victories and one 3rd place victory in the three competitions they entered.

Besides spending many hours practicing and performing, the Majorettes devote much time to money-making activities. They are proud of the fact that they personally have worked for and earned most of the uniforms they wear.

Alice In Wonderland

On May 16 and 17, 1980, Seneca High School became a world of make-believe when students put on the play Alice in Wonderland.

The halls echoed with the laughter of little children as they watched the amusing antics of the Mad Hatter, Humpty Dumpty, the Cheshire Cat and the entire Alice in Wonderland cast.

Many people participated, not only as actors and actresses, but also with lights, props, sets, makeup, and costumes.

"The Queen approaches!"

"Don't talk about round. I have a wait problem."

"Spoiled brats! Off with ...!"

"Nohow. Tomorrow I'll knock your head off."

"Don't make such funny noises, dear."

"Onions and pepper. Carrots and pepper Potatoes and pepper."

"This is the most ridiculous trial I ever heard of!"

"The first thing in a visit is to say 'Howdy do' and shake hands.

"Off with her head!"

"Noroom! Noroom!"

"Once I was a real turtle."

"That's none of your business, Two!"

"Transplanting time, girls!"

"Once a child leaves Wonderland, there is never a way back."
